

WALL ST. TRAGEDY CAUSE OF SUICIDE

Bank Clerk Plunges From Roof of Nine-Story National City Building.

Frank Marvin Carpenter, thirty-two, of No. 37 Crooke Avenue, Brooklyn, committed suicide late yesterday afternoon by jumping into Exchange Place from the roof of the nine-story National City Bank Building. It is said the Wall Street explosion unnerved him. He leaves a wife and son. The impact of his body caused a sound that startled many nearby, whose nerves have been on edge since the explosion in Wall Street. Carpenter was a clerk in the bank.

HELD FOR FREIGHT THEFT.

Truck Drivers and Clerk Accused of Stealing Shipments.

James Mancos, twenty-one, truck driver of No. 41 Madison Street; Jacob Keen, twenty-three, No. 214 South Street, Elizabeth, receiving clerk for the Pennsylvania Railroad at Pier No. 4, North River, and Frank Camponelli, twenty, truck driver, No. 229 Nassau Street, Brooklyn, were arraigned in the Tombs Court to-day charged with grand larceny.

John Albans, wholesale dealer in wines and olives, had Mancos carry a consignment of goods to the Pennsylvania Railroad for shipment. Subsequently, he returned the shipping receipt, but the consignee did not receive the goods.

GEO. NASMYTH DIES ABROAD.

Well-Known Sociologist Victim of Typhoid Fever at Geneva.

GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept. 21.—

George Nasmyth, widely known American sociologist and internationalist, died of typhoid fever here Monday. He was born in Cleveland, O., in 1852. His home was in Ithaca, N. Y.

Mr. Nasmyth had long been active in sociological work and in international activities to further world amity, and took a leading part in organizing the conference of the world alliance for promoting international friendship through the churches, held at The Hague last fall. He was the author of numerous treatises on social and international questions.

Corsets

Exclusive with the Wanamaker Store

"LILLIAN"
"SILPHIN"
"PARISIENNE"
"L. R."

The new models for Autumn and Winter are very interesting, and as the success of the Fall apparel depends so much on the correct corset such a display should be of utmost interest to every woman.

The Corset Salons extend a cordial invitation to you to attend the special showing on Wednesday and following days. Third floor, Old Bldg.

The snap in the Autumn air means

—that warm night clothes are necessary
—especially for wee tots.

Soft, warm flannelette which does not scratch, but is fluffy and cozy in the material to keep off Jack Frost's nip. In the section devoted to wee boys and girls are all the warm winter things. Pajamas of plain white, pink or blue or of narrow stripes, fastened with silk frogs, sizes 4 to 16 are $2.50 and $2.95.

Night drawers with feet are striped or plain white. Sizes 2 to 6, $1.75.

Infants' flannelette gowns, dainty and white, sizes 1, 2 and 3 are at $1.15.

Billie Burkes which gather in a ruffle about the ankle and do not slip up to let in cold air come in pink or blue stripes or plain colors with a butterfly figure. Sizes 2 to 16. $3.25.

Long night gowns of white or pink and blue figures have a high turnover collar or a V neck. All have long sleeves. Sizes 6 to 16. $2.95.

Bathrobes of blanket cloth or eiderdown are edged with satin, have silk cords, plain or turn over collared necklines. Colors are plain pink and blue or crossbars in blue and tan or blue and red. Sizes 6 months to 6 years. $3.25 and $4.50.

For the larger girl or boy are bathrobes of blanket cloth in gay figures with a square or oval collar. Sizes 8 to 18. Prices $6.50 and $6.95, according to size.

Flannelette princess slips for the snappy days are of plain white with the round shoulder line and ruffle hemstitched in white or pink or blue. Sizes 4 to 12. $1.15 or $1.65, according to size.

Third floor, Old Bldg.

IN THE DOWN-STAIRS STORE

The last of Women's Coats, $25

Perhaps you have guessed it—these are odd coats, one and two of a kind, in good models for early Autumn wear. Serges, poplins, among them—half or fully lined. The woman who wants a medium-weight coat to wear before the heavy coat is necessary, will find these appropriate and desirable. And the saving will be well worth while.

Down Stairs Store, Old Bldg.

Solid Bead Bags Ready at $3.95

Not the open-work style. SOLID BEADS—in dark mottled and stripe effects. Draw-string style with crochet top. These are much more desirable than the flimsier kinds that are now so plentiful.

Down Stairs Store, New Bldg.

Good Silks still less than cost

Do you remember the stock-adjustment sale, when several thousand yards of our good silks were offered at less than maker's cost? These silks were part of that sale—all we have left; and there are many, many kinds, in lengths of 2 to 7 yards—for waists, frocks, underclothes, fancy work and other uses. Sale prices are—75c, $1, $1.75 and $2.75 a yard.

Down Stairs Store, New Bldg.

"Too many Blankets" rich plaid kinds

There are times when enthusiasm gets the better of sound judgment. And so—too many of these fine all-wool blankets occupy space in our stock room. Result?—lower prices; good for you and helpful to us.

Wool plaids—68x80 in.—now $13.75

A better grade—now $18.75

Wool-mixed plaids. $7.50

Comforters otherwise

Single bed size—now $1.95

Double bed size. $2.50 and $3.50

Down Stairs Store, Main Bldg.

Real LACES

have arrived from Belgium

One of the most beautiful array of laces that has ever adorned our counters is now on special display—new laces from Belgium—exquisite in every way. Any woman with new dresses to plan for should see them.

ROSE POINT that brings to mind visions of beautiful bridal creations is perhaps the most fascinating because of its web-like delicacy; 1 to 7 in. wide, $9 to $75 yard.

ANOTHER FAVORITE is the beautiful Point Venise lace, so desired for collars, cuffs and trimming; 1 to 7 in. wide; $4.75 to $35 yard.

IRISH EDGES and insertions, ½ in. to 6 in. wide; 50c to $13.50 yard.

VALENCIENNES edges and insertions, ½ in. to 7 in. wide; 50c to $65 yard.

RINCE lace, ½ in. to 3 in. wide; 95c to $6.95 yard.

FILET EDGES and insertions, ½ in. to 7 in. wide; 45c to $5.95 yard.

DUCHESSE and point laces, 3 in. to 12 in. wide; $22.50 to $45 yard.

CARRICK-MA-CROSS laces, 1½ to 22 in. wide; $5 to $50 yard.

POINT APPLIQUE laces, 5 to 12 in. wide; $12 to $20 yard.

LIMERICK laces, 4 to 7 in. wide; $6.50 to $18.

ROSALINE laces, 1½ to 3 in. wide; $8.95 to $12.95 yard.

CLUNY edges and insertions, ½ in. to 7½ in. wide; 25c to $7.50 yard.

Not all laces in all widths. And in many cases there are many prices in between.

Prices according to width and quality.

A lovely combination is of rose point and Venise. The delicate tracing of the Rose Point blending beautifully with the heavier Venise edging; 4 in. wide, $45 yard.

Main floor, Old Bldg.

We Want More Women to Know the Good WAHNA Face Creams

So, while September larks (10 business days more) the prices will be—

WONDERFUL cold cream, cleanser par excellence, 55c.

SKIN CREAM, great tissue builder, 80c.

CREME WAHNA, matchless greaseless cream, 45c.

RUFF SKIN, for chapped hands, sunburn, etc., 27c.

These creams are the standard of what in face creams is pure and wholesome and effective.

They are sold all over the United States, in Europe and in South America. But we are seeking for an increasing volume to keep prices low. And so—the September prices.
